

- Lennu Legionella bacteria
- Likes especially jacuzzis and playing pc games
- Doesn't like chlorine water in swimming halls

Legionella bacteria live in various water systems, for example in water pipes, when the water is warm enough. It can cause diseases where the symptoms are, for example, fever, muscle pains and breathing difficulties. To prevent legionella bacteria from growing in water systems, they must be maintained in the right way.

- Niki Norovirus
- Likes especially playing guitar and traveling
- Doesn't like cleaning

Norovirus mainly causes stomach diseases in humans. It spreads mainly through contact and surfaces. The symptoms caused by the virus are typical stomach disease symptoms. The spread of the virus can be prevented by taking care of good hand hygiene and cleaning places.

- Rilla Rhinovirus
- Likes especially house parties and football
- Doesn't like washing hands

Rhinovirus is the most common virus that causes colds. The virus is mainly spread by droplet and contact infection. Typical symptoms of the disease are cold-like symptoms, such as stuffy nose, coughing and sneezing. In order to prevent the spread of the virus, it is good to take care of hand hygiene and hygiene in general.